PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

This charming colonial has been completely renovated from top to bottom. The open floor plan is extremely inviting as you walk in the front door. There is high hat lighting throughout, a marble fireplace and several French doors to add to the drama of the space. The addition on the back of the house opens the modern kitchen with granite counters and stainless steel appliances into a sunny great room. This is the perfect house for entertaining with access from the living room, dining room or great room to the patio or covered porch. There is a laundry and powder room on the first floor. Upstairs has two spacious bedrooms and a new hall bathroom. A bonus room in the hall has been turned into a walk in closet. The new master bedroom and bathroom have many intriguing details including: a claw foot bath tub, skylight and French doors overlooking the rear yard. The basement is finished with a large tiled playroom, a new full bathroom and a storage/furnace room. You are also conveniently close to public transportation, the railroad, to shops and a school.
